

Gaza Appeal

Aged 14, Hend is attending a psychosocial class run by the Department of Service to Palestinian Refugees Gaza. During last year's war, her neighbourhood was badly bombed and her best friend killed. Suffering from severe Post-traumatic Stress Disorder she has found the sessions with a trained counsellor and the group have helped her deal with her negative thoughts and feelings.

Many residents of Gaza carry trauma from the war and need medical and psychological care. DSPR is helping mothers, children and young people every day.
